The international conference “History of contemporary Russia: Problems, documents, facts (1985–1999)” (Moscow, 25 November 2010) continued the series of multidisciplinary discussions about one of the most complicated and controversial periods of our country’s recent history.

The speeches and presentations by the Russian and international scholars, devoted to the analysis of the dramatic events of last years of the USSR’s existence and the early stage of the new Russia formation, allow to reconstruct a multidimensional objective picture of the causes and consequences of huge-scale socio-economic and political transformations occurring in the “era of changes”.

This publication is intended for everybody interested in national history of the
