SCOPE—IEEE Intelligent Transportation Systems Magazine (ITSM) publishes peer-reviewed articles that provide innovative research ideas and application results, report significant application case studies, and raise awareness of pressing research and application challenges in all areas of intelligent transportation systems. In contrast to the highly academic publication of IEEE Transactions on Intelligent Transportation Systems, ITS Magazine focuses on providing needed information to all members of ITS Society, serving as a dissemination vehicle for ITS Society members and the others to learn the state of the art development and progress on ITS research and applications. High quality tutorials, surveys, successful implementations, technology reviews, lessons learned, policy and societal impacts, and ITS educational issues will also be published as well. ITS Magazine will also serve as an ideal media communication vehicle between the governing body of ITS Society and its membership and promote ITS community development and growth.
